PROFESSIONAL OVERVIEW

Ashley M. Ackerman is a Senior Manager with Holman Frenia Allison, P.C. (HFA), a regional public accounting firm of over 75 professionals serving the New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania markets.

Ms. Ackerman brings over twelve years of professional experience to HFA. Her auditing experience encompasses for-profit entities in both IFRS and GAAP, non-profit organizations, and employee benefit plan audits. Prior to joining HFA in 2019, she spent five years with SC&H Group, LLC and three years with Ernst & Young, LLP.

Her main areas of expertise include auditing, consulting, single audits, and internal controls. She is the Director of Quality Control for HFA, ensuring policies and procedures meet quality standards.

Ms. Ackerman is currently a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants (NJCPA) and the Maryland Association of Certified Public Accountants (MACPA).

Ms. Ackerman serves on the Board of Directors of Coastal Habitat for Humanity. The goal of Coastal Habitat for Humanity is to put love and respect into action by bringing people of all backgrounds together to build and repair homes and communities.

She is also a part-time Adjunct Professor at Kean University in Union, New Jersey.

Ms. Ackerman graduated from Towson University with a Bachelor of Science in both Accounting and Economics. She then went on to receive a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Baltimore.
