PROFESSIONAL OVERVIEW

Lauren M. Holman is the lead Partner in HFA's Not-for-Profit Audit & Attestation Division, and serves as the firm's Vice-President. HFA is a regional public accounting firm of over 75 professionals serving the New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania markets. Ms. Holman became HFA's first female Partner in 2018.

Ms. Holman brings 20 years of experience in audit and accounting services to the HFA team. Prior to joining HFA in 2006, she spent two years at an international accounting firm and another two years as an internal auditor at a Fortune 500 company.

Her extensive expertise encompasses not-for-profit organizations, authorities, insurance funds, municipal agencies, fire districts, and school boards. Having served over 100 distinct entities, her primary areas of specialization include auditing, internal controls, and forensic accounting.

Ms. Holman is an active member of both the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants (NJCPA).

Ms. Holman serves as Board Chair of Fulfill, a Not-for-Profit organization with the mission to alleviate hunger and build food security in Monmouth and Ocean Counties and to make sure that all people at all times have access to enough nutritious food to maintain an active and healthy life.

Additionally, she serves on the board of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northern and Coastal New Jersey, as well as the Girl Scouts of the Jersey Shore, where she holds the positions of treasurer and chair of the audit committee. She is also a member of the executive boards for the Parent Teacher Associations at Memorial Middle School and Ocean Road School.

Ms. Holman graduated from Franklin and Marshall College with a B.S. in Accounting and Business Management and then went on to earn a Master of Science in Accounting from the University of Virginia.
