PROFESSIONAL OVERVIEW

Kevin P. Frenia is a founding Partner of HFA, a regional certified public accounting firm of over 75 professionals, serving the New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania markets.

He initiated his career as a sole proprietor in 1991, eventually merging with Jump, Green & Holman to establish Holman & Frenia, P.C. in 1996, and later, Holman Frenia Allison, P.C.

With 35 years of experience as an engagement partner, Mr. Frenia specializes in auditing services for a diverse clientele, including New Jersey public school boards, water and sewer utilities, local and state government entities, non-profit entities, and charter schools. His core competencies include audits, forensic accounting, financial statement audits, and litigation support.

Mr. Frenia holds memberships in several professional organizations, including the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants (NJCPA), Registered Municipal Accountants Association (RMAA), and the Philadelphia Area Chapter of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE).

Mr. Frenia is Past-President of the Medford Sunrise Rotary Foundation.

He received a B.A. in Accounting with a Minor in Computer Science from Rutgers University.
